Ashtakvarga Analysis

Ashtakavarga is a unique predictive method in Vedic Astrology that assigns numerical values (bindus/ points) to each planet in each sign. It helps determine the strength and auspiciousness of planets in different houses. Higher points indicate favorable results, while lower points suggest challenges.

- Scores above 28 points in a sign are considered strong and auspicious
- Scores between 25-28 are moderate
- Scores below 25 indicate weakness and potential challenges
- The total Sarvashtakvarga (SAV) shows overall life strength in each sign

Manglik Details / Mangal Dosha

Generally Manglik Dosha is considered from the position of Lagna and Moon in the birth chart.

In your birth chart, Mangal is placed in ?th house from Lagna, while in the Moon chart Mangal is placed in ?th house.

Mangal Dosha is present neither in Lagna Chart nor in Moon Chart.

What is Manglik Dosha?

Vedic astrology says that if Mars is placed in the 1st, 4th, 7th, 8th or 12th house of a person's birth chart, then it is called Mangal Dosha. Mangal Dosha is also known as Bhom Dosha, Kuja Dosha or Angarakha Dosha. It can cause delays or hurdles in marriage and interpersonal relationships.

Congratulations! Since no Mangal Dosha is found in your charts, no special remedies are required.

Pitra Dosha Analysis

Pitra Dosha is related to ancestral karma and blessings. It occurs when there are afflictions to the 9th house (house of father and ancestors) or when Sun is conjunct with Rahu or other malefic planets.

No significant Pitra Dosha is found in your chart.

What is Pitra Dosha?

Pitra Dosha indicates unfulfilled desires or curses from ancestors. It can manifest as obstacles in career, marriage delays, health issues, or financial problems. This dosha suggests the need to perform ancestral rituals and seek blessings from forefathers.

Your chart shows no significant Pitra Dosha. Continue honoring your ancestors through regular prayers and remembrance.

Kalsarp Dosha Analysis

Kalsarp Dosha occurs when all seven planets (Sun, Moon, Mars, Mercury, Jupiter, Venus, Saturn) are positioned between Rahu and Ketu in the birth chart. This creates a powerful karmic influence.

Insufficient data to determine Kalsarp Dosha

What is Kalsarp Dosha?

Kalsarp Dosha is formed when all planets are hemmed between the Rahu-Ketu axis. There are 12 types of Kalsarp Dosha based on the position of Rahu. This dosha can cause delays, obstacles, and mental stress, but it also gives the strength to overcome challenges and achieve success through hard work.

Kalsarp Dosha is not present in your chart. You are free from this particular karmic influence.

Sadesati Analysis (Shani Sade Sati)

Sadesati is the 7.5-year period when Saturn transits through the 12th, 1st, and 2nd houses from your Moon sign. It is considered a challenging but transformative period in Vedic astrology.

Insufficient data to determine Sadesati

What is Sadesati?

Sadesati occurs when Saturn transits the 12th, 1st, and 2nd houses from the natal Moon. It lasts approximately 7.5 years and is divided into three phases of 2.5 years each. While traditionally considered challenging, Sadesati is actually a period of karmic cleansing, spiritual growth, and building resilience.

You are not currently in Sadesati period. Continue your spiritual practices and maintain discipline in life.
